Glory be to Jesus,
Who in bitter pains
Poured for me the life blood
From His sacred veins.

FRESHMEN - NEWCOMERS * * * WELCOME

The sad farewells of June now give way to the joyous ring of welcome. The SANGUINIST extends a warm handclasp of greeting to you, the Freshmen class, and to all newcomers. We hope you will welcome our weekly religious message. We are pinning a lot of hopes on you. Our prayer -- that success crowns your efforts; that this year of golden jubilee be the happiest of your life.

ANOTHER CHRIST - A NEW MEANING: FR. LORD

"Too long has the phrase 'alter Christus' been kept only for the young priest. Naturally, because of his special office and special powers, the young priest is 'another Christ' in supreme fashion. But so is the young lawyer finishing the Catholic law school, the young engineer coming out of the Catholic university, the young A.B. from the Catholic college....

The great, and would it be too much to say, the sole purpose of Catholic education, is simply this - the development of other Christs. Christ came not merely to teach us the way to die; but to teach us the way to live. That is platitude, of course; but the educated Catholic is merely a man or woman who has learned how to live. And there is no Christian way of living except in imitation of Christ, the Son of God, the most perfect of men."

NOTED SCIENTIST HITS THE NAIL!!

September's READERS' DIGEST offers some solid food for thought in the outspoken contribution of the world-known scientist, Dr. Alexis Carrel, "Work in the Laboratory of Your Private Life". It will pay every student rich dividends to read this thought-provoking article. We offer you a sample to lead you on:

"All life has aspired to the condition of an English week-end, a Thursday-to-Monday holiday. Amusement has been our national cry; a good time, our chief concern.....This indolent and undisciplined way of life has sapped our individual vigor and imperiled our democratic form of government. Our race pitifully needs new supplies of discipline, morality, and intelligence."

OCTOBER DEVOTIONS - - A PLEA FOR ATTENDANCE

Two nights weekly, the Rosary and Prayer to St. Joseph will be recited during solemn exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. The nights are: TUESDAY, FRIDAY. The time: six-thirty, immediately after supper. If you feel it is too inconvenient to attend both evenings, then be generous and unselfish enough to spend at least one of these evenings before the Blessed Sacrament. We all need God's blessing on our work -- seek it during the October devotions.

LITURGICAL CALENDAR

SUN. 6. 21st Sunday after Pentecost. The epistle of this day's Mass contains a striking thought for all of us. St. Paul admonishes to "Put on the armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the deceits of the Devil." God's armor for us is the grace flowing through the channels of Mass and the Sacraments.

MON. 7. Solemnity of the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary: this solemn feast was instituted by Pope Pius V in Thanksgiving for the victory of the Christians over the Turks in the naval battle of Lepanto, Oct 7, 1571. Love the Rosary.

Tues. 8. St. Bridget of Sweden (1303-75), the mother of eight children, retired to a life of constant prayer and penance following the death of her husband.

WED. 9. Feast of the Holy Martyrs of Paris, Sts. Dionysius, Rusticus, and Eleutherius, who were beheaded for the Faith.

Thurs. 10. St. Francis Borgia, Confessor. 1510-71. Great Spanish saint. Distinguished nobleman, he became general of the Jesuits. Rarely gifted, of charming manner, he directed those gifts in the service of God's glory. Read his thrilling life by Margaret Yeo... in the library.

FRI. 11. Motherhood of Mary. This singular feast was introduced by the late Pontiff, to keep before the minds of men that Mary, Mother of God, is the ideal of true motherhood.

Sat. 12. Saturday of Our Blessed Lady.
